

WELCOME SPRING 2009
Friday, April 24, 2009, and Saturday, April 25, 2009
9:00-4:00

Join Doyle Farm Nursery and Heartwood Nursery, Inc. together as they present a delightful opportunity for customers, old and new to experience the chance to learn and explore two of the finest native nurseries in our region. Admittance ,all talks and demonstrations are free.

HEARTWOOD NURSERY, INC. www.heartwoodnurseryinc.com

Visit Heartwood Nursery Inc, Sue Dieter, owner.from 9:00 to 4:00. A working multi-faceted 70 acre nursery specializing in woody propagation and native woody propagation from cuttings and seed. Tours at the nursery will include a native cutting garden installation *(job in progress!) , propagation workshops in the new propagation facilities, tours of mature native trees and shrubs in the selling field, potting demonstrations, pruning demonstrations, and field digging mature balled and burlapped trees at 2:00 weather permitting. There will be a large shopping area featuring native trees, shrubs, and groundcovers, such as Comptonia, Native Azaleas, Hollies, Serviceberry, several native Viburnums, and much more for sale. Gift Certificates are also available . It will be Mother's Day soon!

Brooke Derr*, of Piedmont Landscapes is a designer who specializes in using native plants in residential gardens.

She has a degree in Horticulture and Landscape Design from the Univ. of Delaware and is on the steering committee for the Millersville Native Plant Conference. Brooke will be able to give free consultations on site related to using native plants and design. Brooke will attend Friday 9:00 - 12:00, and Saturday 9-4.

Judy Bono, owner of the Gardener of the Owl Valley, will entice attendees with selections from her shop including unique seasonal gifts, useful garden tools and books. Native plants are also for sale at Judy's Hellam location on 7 acres of beautifully preserved natural landscape. Visit The Gardener of the Owl Valley for unique , beautiful ideas for your own landscape from Judy.

John Shepley is an engineer and alternative/ renewable energy consultant - co-owner of Emory Knoll Farms - the nation's leading supplier of plant material for green roofs. John will present energy solutions for horticulture and agriculture:

- High efficiency greenhouse and workshop heating systems
- Solar-powered Irrigation systems
- Alternative Energy Solutions - Non- Fossil Fuel Heating and Electric Supply
- Battery powered vehicles for the Nursery
- Advanced Greenhouse and Nursery Monitoring and Control Systems.

DOYLE FARM NURSERY www.doylefarm.com

Visit Doyle Farm Nursery , Jacquelyn Doyle, owner from 9:00 - 4:00 for their opening Spring Ephemeral Sale. Trilliums. Woodland phlox, woodland geraniums, violets, foam flowers, fire pinks, downy rattlesnake plantain, wild ginger and more.

10:00 am Saturday's Garden Talk will feature Ann Bodling. Landscaping with Native Plants: Enhancing Biodiversity in Your Own Backyard. Enjoy a "how-to" program. Ann will show a visual tour of Native plants and explain how to get started in your own home landscape.

Ann has been involved in conservation and horticultural pursuits all of her adult life. She works here at Doyle Farm Nursery, and has her own business: Annie's Gardens. She is president of the Lancaster County Bird Club and gives talks to garden groups, birding clubs, and any group interested in native plants.

For continued updated information, please visit our websites:

www.heartwoodnurseryinc.com. Descriptions for 7-11 & 9-4&5 are still being worked on
www.doylefarm.com - all events are described

If there are any questions, please click on the "contact" link on either website and we will return your message as soon as possible. Directions between the two nurseries will be provided.

We are very excited about having the consecutive Open Houses this year and hope you will enjoy yourselves. We look forward to seeing everyone!